

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article in the printing business, and as the price of the paper has advanced, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year, always in advance.

Important Notice.

We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to see the papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has long inconvenienced the army, and deprived it of a full supply of papers.

Persons can procure any number of papers at this office at the usual rate of three dollars per hundred; postage added, if by mail.

CITY NEWS.

Robert, slave of Mrs. L. L. Shreve, arson. The charge of arson was dismissed; he was ordered to receive twenty stripes for disorderly conduct.

J. L. Joyce, stealing $600 from Lewis Livingston; bail in $600 to answer.

A peace warrant was disposed of.

CITY.—The morning awoke very pleasantly yesterday, the sun reported for duty at the usual hour, and the day did fair to be calm and lovely and the ladies came out to welcome its presence. Business in the city was lively as usual, and the several military departments did rather a slim amount. The police did not make any important arrests, and the jail seemed slightly antiquated. The coroner held one inquest. The improvements on the streets are rapidly progressing. The city was both quiet and moral. At the blanch of evening the clerk of the weather opened a window some place, for an awful cold wind visited us, causing most of our citizens to shrug their shoulders and lots of pretty girls to make way for the night. The night was rather cool and quiet. The places of amusement were filled. Now Mr. Clerk, give us a pretty day and you will see all the beauty and fashion of our goodly city at this afternoon on the sidewalks.

RACES AT WOODLAWN TO-DAY.—By reference to the advertisement it will be seen that there will be three races at Woodlawn Course to-day. The first race is a match for $500 a side, between "Jim" and "Maul Brooks," mile heats, three best in five. The second is a two mile race for $500, between "Nelly" and "Eggle." The third race is mile heats, three best in five, between "Frank Harris," "Charley Morgan," "Bob" and "Tom O'Neil." In each of these races the horses are well matched, and as the track will be in excellent order and the races will be exciting, and fast time may be expected. The regular running races commenced on Monday next, and judging from the horses which have arrived, and which are to contend for the different purses, we will have a week of fine sport. The attention of the members of the association is called to the notice of Secretary Milton, which appears in another column.

ARREST OF A ROGUE DETECTIVE.—Yesterday Captain Green had a man arrested for making arrests, he is claiming to be a detective. He is a great many persons arrested by parties, who represent themselves as being detectives, and we learn that measures have been adopted to punish with severity all those who may be caught hereafter practicing this deception. It has got to be a common thing, and we are glad to learn that the military authorities have determined to put an end to the deception by severely punishing those who may be detected in arresting persons without any authority whatever.

NEW TRIAL GRANTED ROBERT SMITH.—Some time during the fore part of this year Robert Smith killed Fred Lindsay, the barkeeper at the United States Hotel. At the last term of the J. H. Hays Circuit Court Smith was tried and convicted of murder. An appeal was taken and news was yesterday received that Smith had been granted a new trial by the Court of Appeals. His case will no doubt be brought before the term of the Circuit Court which commences on Monday week.

The general delivery at the postoffice being kept open after 7 o'clock at night is proving to be a benefit and convenience to the laboring portion of our community. This change was a good one, on the part of Postmaster Speed, for which those benefited return their sincere thanks.

There was little or no business transacted at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday. Two or three persons were released from custody after a hearing, and their cases were dismissed, there being no proof against them on the charges preferred.

The body of an unknown man was found floating in the river yesterday at the foot of Clay street. The coroner held an inquest on the body, which will be found in another column.

The election of ten Directors for the Board of Trade will be held at the Mercantile Exchange to-day at half past 3 o'clock.

No regular letters will be received yesterday. What's the matter now?

For list of letters see fourth page.

RECAP OF THE REBEL CAPTAIN DAVIDSON

AND A COMRADE.—The notorious Captain Davidson, who was taken prisoner at Canton in a fight with Adam Johnson's men, some time ago, and brought to this city, escaped from the barracks on Main street last night, under the following circumstances, taking a comrade with him by the name of Corley, who belonged to the Sixteenth Georgia. A short time ago he succeeded in picking the locks attached to the barracks on Main street last night, and came out, and he and his comrade, Corley, were very near escaping his capture. Heavier ones very near escaping him and he was thought to be safe thus far. Yesterday morning about two o'clock he requested the guard to accompany him to an outhouse, which the guard consented to do, Davidson carrying the iron balls and dragging the heavy chains after him. The guard waited for some time, and upon opening the door he discovered the balls and chains lying upon the floor, a hole torn in the roof, and Captain Davidson was seen. A quiet search was now going on, during which time Davidson was not idle, and at the same time, Corley was following his very footsteps. A clerk who was in the upper story of Mr. J. M. Stevens' dry goods house, three doors above the barracks, was suddenly aroused from his slumbers by a piece of broken glass falling upon him from a skylight. He asked, "Who's there?" when Davidson, who had been cutting out a window pane, no doubt with the intention of dropping through it to the bed, replied, "Let me down," but the clerk not wishing him to "jump down" at an unreasonable hour, ran to the window and shouted for the guards. Excitement now was high, and while the guards were going up through Mr. Stephens' house, Captain Davidson and Corley were just coming down through J. G. Baxter's unoccupied house, next door, and the search was almost abandoned, when, to their utter surprise, they found the front door open on the lower floor, through which Captain Davidson and Corley had descended, as they have not been seen or heard of since. It is supposed they went down the chimney into Mr. Baxter's store. Davidson is a young man of fine appearance, quick wit, fine literary attainments, and is said to be as brave as a lion. He commanded company F, Seventeenth Kentucky, and resigned when Colonel McHenry died, since which time he has been a noted guerrilla leader. No doubt Corley thinks, "All right my comrade."

SELLING GRAIN.—Persons having wheat and other grain to sell frequently get imposed upon as to the price, unless they spend a great deal of time in hunting up all the different buyers in different parts of the city. Very frequently large amounts of wheat are sold here at five to ten cents under the market, or perhaps we should say, five to ten cents less than other dealers were paying on the same day. Farmers frequently have their favorite dealers who word they are willing to take to the market price, without taking their privilege of looking around for themselves. Now the truth is, that no one dealer can know what all the other dealers are paying, and he may think he is offering the highest price when he is not.

The only true way to remedy this difficulty is to have the buyers and sellers all together as is done in all other large cities, at the Merchants' Exchange. Here the highest bidder takes the grain, and the seller is sure to get within one cent at least of the highest price that any buyer will pay in the city on that day.

UNITED STATES COURT—Fourth Day's Proceedings.—Pursuant to adjournment the United States Court met at ten o'clock yesterday morning.

No business of importance was transacted. Judgment was rendered in a number of criminal cases, but the amounts involved were small. The court will meet again at ten o'clock this morning, when the case of the United States against Garret, security for Dr. Huber, will be decided.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY ANNOUNCES that he will receive proposals until October 14th for forty millions of 5-20 bonds. The 7-20 loan will not be interfered with, and remains the most convenient investment at par that is now in the market, while the "proposals" may be desirable for banks and capitalists. The subscriptions to the 7-20s have already amounted to over forty-five millions. Full particulars in relation to both these loans will be found in our advertising columns.

CAUTION.—Sometime since two men, named James Montgomery and F. B. Allison, were discharged from the military prison in this city and ordered to go north of the Ohio river to remain during the war. Thinking the war was over, they went to Lebanon, Ky., a few days since, and were caught there while trying to sell themselves for substitutes. They were brought to this city yesterday and put in the guard-house.

ARREST OF A YOUNG THIEF.—Yesterday morning officer William Cook arrested Benjamin Reynolds, a youth about thirteen years of age, upon the charge of stealing a horse and wagon from an old negro in the lower portion of the city. The boy drove the horse some sixteen miles into the country where he offered to sell it and the wagon for a small price. His case will be investigated before the Police Court this morning.

MILITARY COMMISSION.—The Military Commission was engaged all day yesterday in the examination of the case of Dr. Basson. Three witnesses for the prosecution were examined. This case will probably occupy the attention of the Commission for several weeks. The Commission meets again at ten o'clock this morning.

BARACKS NO. 1.—Business was very lively at the barracks yesterday. Three hundred and thirty-eight convalescents and new recruits were sent to Nashville, thirteen convalescents to Lebanon, fourteen to Bowlinggreen and twenty-nine to Lexington. Eighty convalescents arrived from various places.

From an advertisement in the Democrat it will be seen that Messrs. Harris & Stone have formed a partnership for the practice of law. It is not necessary for us to say that any business entrusted to these gentlemen will be faithfully and skillfully managed—everybody knows that.

TO SOLDIERS.—The soldiers of Hamilton county, Ohio, who wish to vote the Democratic ticket can obtain them at the office of Mr. Hamilton Pope, on Fifth street, between Market and Jefferson streets, and at the count rooms of the Democrat and Journal offices.

MCGILL'S CLUB.—The McGill Club will meet next Saturday evening, October 8th, at seven and a half o'clock, at the small hall of Masonic Temple. Every member is invited and expected to be present. oct 7d.

Two rebel and four political prisoners arrived from Nashville yesterday. Fourteen rebel deserters were sent one hundred miles into the interior of Indiana yesterday where they are to be released.

Three notorious thieves—Wm. Drake, Samuel W. Rose and J. L. Henry—were arrested in this city yesterday by officers Jesse Hammon, Siskhorn and Winston.

A man supposed to be a member of Holle's guerrillas was sent to this city from Evansville yesterday. His name is George Rinsinger.

The attentive Adams Express Company's messengers never forget to furnish us with latest Eastern Exchanges. Thanks, gentlemen.

The train from Nashville arrived last evening with a big trip of passengers. Nothing new transpiring along the road.

Point Everhart will sell his interest of the whole store of Kerbert & Hemming. oct 7d.

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—At this establishment the Ticket-of-Leave Man was well performed last night. To-night the bill will consist of the Lady of the Lake and the Golden Farmer. At half past 8 o'clock this afternoon there will be a grand matinee, which will consist of a Kiss in the Dark and Handy Andy. On Monday night Miss Helen Western, one of Louisville's great favorites, will positively make her first appearance in this city and the more announcement that she will appear will no doubt fill the house to overflowing.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Madame Ponzi was greeted with another large and fashionable house last night on the occasion of her benefit. To-night is her last appearance in our city, when she will appear in her celebrated character of Lady Macbeth. There will be a grand matinee at half past two o'clock, when Madame Ponzi will appear in the new drama of "Judith of Geneva."

MADAME TOURNAIRE and JAMES ROBINSON.—The premier quadrille and champion rider of the world have been engaged by manager Lent for his "Ruescurriculum," which will exhibit in the city on Monday, the 10th. There is no mistake about Robinson, whose challenge to the world for ten thousand dollars has been open for one year, but no rival equestrian has had the pluck or hardihood to accept it. The great back-buck rider is as familiar to the Louisville public as the famous tragedian, Ned Forrest, is to the theatrical audience of New York. It is superfluous to state that he is beyond comparison the most daring and skillful horseman that ever "witched" the spectator with an aerial display of equestrianism, for James Robinson is universally conceded to be the greatest rider, not only of the present day, but of the legends of the circus we need not chronicle one who can compare with him. And now for the Tournaire. But a few years since there appeared in the gay French metropolis, and in Franco's Circus Olympique, a dazzling equestrian, who took by storm the susceptible Parisians, and her name was also attached to the equestrian world, and we could enumerate almost a host of celebrities, each of whom is in vogue at Paris. For example—Mlle Louise, Miss Siskhorn, S. P. Siskhorn, James Madison, the famous Conrad Brothers, models of the Antinous school of high art; Messrs. Devere, Robinson, Forrest, Gonzales, Doudan, Van, Shay, and, in short, an almost interminable catalogue of the most celebrated names in the equestrian world, with the gentlemanly Joe Penland as clown, a "fellow of infinite wit" and a gentleman of education.

The above constitutes one of seven shows which will be exhibited upon the pavilion at the corner of Gray and Second streets, the Grandly Adorable menagerie; the performing dogs, monkeys and ponies; the intellectual bull, the educated mules, and so on ad infinitum, and which in each department would constitute a show of itself, will be thrown in gratis.

BAILEY & CO.'S CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE.—Where ever this grand quadruple combination have traveled this season they have met with a perfect ovation, and notwithstanding the fact that the pavilion which has been erected in this or any other country, it has proved in most cases to be an immense capacity to hold the people which have crowded to see the great living hippopotamus, the performing elephants, the manager of Herr Dreisbach (acknowledged to be the most extensive in the country) and Bailey's troupe of equestrian stars. Arrangements have been made, however, by the enterprising proprietors to erect extra stands in Louisville, that all may be accommodated. A friend informs us that the morning and evening exhibitions of this establishment at Madison, on Thursday last, drew together two of the largest concourses of people that have ever assembled in that city. The grand quadruple alliance will reach this city on Monday next, and will give exhibitions afternoon and evening for five days, on Chestnut street, near Third, and also morning exhibitions on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next, for the benefit of schools and families, of the Hippopotamus, elephant, and other animals, the admission to which will be only twenty-five cents.

one day said, "I wish, General, that Governor Brown could see and talk with you." "Let him come," replied the General, "I have no objection to his coming, but he must be able to speak for himself, and there are valuable records here which he would do well to consult."

The Cumberland river, according to last accounts, was swelling, with over seven feet of water on Harpeth shoals. There had been considerable rain along that stream, and a still further rise was looked for.

The Science No. 2, a first-class lake water packet, will be off for Nashville and all way points on the Cumberland river at 10 o'clock this morning. The vessel is commanded by Captain M. Rhorer, a good boatman, assisted in the clerk's office by S. H. Rhorer.

The first new packet, the Morning Star, will leave today at 4 o'clock P. M. for Owensboro, Evansville, Henderson and all way points. The Morning Star is a fine boat, and, having large staterooms, she offers unsurpassed accommodations, while her tables are spread with every luxury of the season. She is in charge of Captain Branch, a veteran boatman, assisted in the clerk's office by attentive gentlemen, and those wishing to spend a pleasant time could do no better than take a trip on this magnificent steamer.

The Hazel Dell is the regular packet for Madison and Carrollton today, leaving the city wharf at 9 o'clock.

The Major Anderson is the regular mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati and the East at noon today. Her officers will be found courteous and attentive.

The Big Missouri is due from St. Louis. She will load here for New Orleans.

The Jewess has gone on the docks at Cincinnati for repairs.

In our perambulations through the city yesterday we stepped into the store of C. J. Walton & Co., on Main street, where we saw a silver lantern, which was imported expressly for E. A. Shibley, Jr., second clerk of the Bench. Stickney at an immense cost. The lantern still remains in the store, but it will not be placed abroad until the time comes when its magnificent outfit is to be used.

The second clerk of the Bench, Stickney, was recognized by the glimmering of his fine lamp.

The Clam Dunning, in charge of Capt. Thompson, will leave the city wharf for Nashville and all way points at 5 o'clock this evening.

Captain Green's fine little packet was launched at the Albany on Thursday.

The work on Captain J. B. Ford's beautiful steamers St. Charles and St. Nicholas is progressing rapidly, and these splendid boats will soon be ready for business.

The new and elegant Steamer will leave New Albany on Friday next, 14th inst., for New Orleans. Shippers will have their freight ready.
